TDI Mall's account attached

» In a punitive action, the South Delhi Municipal Corporation on Thursday attached a bank account of TDI Mall in Jasola for failing to pay up property tax to the tune of over Rs 1.5 crore, PTI reports from New Delhi.

The corporation's property tax department took the action after repeated notices to pay up the dues failed to elicit any response from the proprietors of the mall, said a senior official of SDMC.

The Jasola District Centre, popularly known as TDI mall, is run by M/s Brightways Housing and Land Development Ltd. The official said the bank account of the proprietors of the mall in New Delhi branch of Indian Bank has been attached.

When contacted, TDI's public relations officer Kalpana Gautam refused to comment.
