

TDI starts bus service between Kundli and Jantar Mantar

New Delhi, 05 November 2007: TDI has announced a first of its kind initiative to start Bus service between TDI City, Kundli (Sonapat) and Jantar Mantar (New Delhi) from today onwards.

Air-conditioned Bus Service has been started for the convenience of customers to travel from TDI City, Kundli to New Delhi and vice versa. Customers can have the first hand experience of witnessing the development of entire TDI City, Kundli and also have a look at the beautifully designed Kingsbury sample flat. Customers who want to visit TDI office (Connaught Place) can also use the bus services.

The bus will run from TDI City, Kundli to Jantar Mantar, New Delhi twice a day i.e. 8.00 am and 3.30 pm. Similarly, it will operate from Jantar Mantar to TDI City, Kundli at 12.00pm and 6.30pm.

The bus has been designed and branded with TDI logo and has facilities like drinking water, newspapers, etc. on board for the customers. One TDI executive will also be available on behalf of the company to provide necessary information to the travellers. The bus has a lounge style seating with capacity of 30 with sofas.

Speaking on this occasion, Mr. Nitesh Kumar, President (Marketing), TDI said: "We are confident that this initiative will be beneficial to our valued customers. Keeping in mind their convenience, we have started the free Bus service so that they can witness the fast pace of development happening at TDI City, Kundli themselves."
