

Foundation ceremony held for TDI Mandir at TDI City, Kundli

Kundli, February 27, 2008: Adding further to the grandeur, a grand foundation ceremony was held for 'TDI Mandir' at TDI City, Kundli today. The auspicious ceremony was performed by renowned priests in traditional Indian style & in the presence of various dignitaries, top management, company officials and staff and a gathering of more than 2500 people. The ceremony was also attended by villagers who were invited from the nearby villages of Nangal Kalan, Patla, Atterna and Rai.

TDI Mandir is a part of mega residential township TDI City, Kundli which is of more than 1500 acres. Spread in the area of 1000 sq yds, approx, 'TDI Mandir' will cater to the religious and spiritual needs of the future residents of TDI City, Kundli as well as the surrounding areas. The serene temple will be ready to add marvel to TDI City within a couple of months and keep the traditional values alive for the residents devotees of TDI City, Kundli.

TDI City, Kundli is soon emerging as the ultimate destination studded with impressive entrance gate, wide and well-lit roads leading to buzzing malls, shopping cum office complexes, schools, hospital, spacious villas and enchanting parks. Construction of Kingsbury apartment, Rodeo Drive, TDI Mall is happening at a fast pace.